

Dad memories Poem Lyrics

Do you remember when you used to sing,
Dear lord that sound was an awful thing.
You tried to help with my math test,
Even though you werent the best
Or when you danced on my wedding day,
Nobody knew quite what to say.
The stories there are many more,
But dad that's why I do adore.

'Cos everything you did for me,
Always done so happily.

And whether it went right or wrong,
We had adventures all along.

So goodbye, as a dad you were the best,
And yes, I did pass my maths test.
