

Even Angel Need Their Sleep Poem Lyrics

To the best Nan in the universe,
The kindest there's ever been,
All the love and all the joy you gave,
At levels never seen.

Even angels need their sleep,
And now's the time to rest,
We hope your dreams are happy Nan,
Our number one, simply the best.

Goodnight Nan, sleep tight and hold your smile, You're one of God's true angels, but we've known that all the while.
