

Grandma poem From Grandkids Poem Lyrics

We sure will miss you grandma,
Things just won't be the same,
The sweets you'd secretly pass to us,
Or when you said you'd forgot our names.

We already miss you grandma,
Though it has not been that long,
But even though you've gone away,
We'll still sing your favourite song.

We'll forever miss you grandma,
There will never be another,
You looked after us with all your heart,
Both me and my young brother.

Oh I wish you were here grandma,
But I know that just can't be,
So we'll give thanks for having you around,
Making things go happily.

[Grandma poem From Grandkids -
Funeralinspirationse.co.uk](http://Funeralinspirationse.co.uk)

