

How can I describe Poem Lyrics

How can I describe you,
To those who may not know,
How can I do justice,
To the truth as it was so.

How can I always honour,
Your love and memory,
How can I make them understand,
Just what you meant to me.

How can they ever realise,
What a hole's left in my life,
How can I relay the deep pain,
As if I have been struck by a knife,

I guess that's why it was the case,
That you were my best friend,
And though they may not understand,
It was true until the end.
