

I know you re near Dad Poem Lyrics

Now you're gone, I'd like to know,
Exactly where it is you go,
I realise that you're not here,
But somehow I still feel you near.

For religion, you never cared,
Yet I wonder if you at times felt scared,
You've sadly passed and gone away,
It's all been so sad since that day.

We missed you and wished you were well,
That you were here, stories to tell,
That you were there to hug and hold,
But time passed, you just got old.

Cancer it is a scary word,
I remember the day when I first heard,
The first time that I saw you scared,
Though how we were, was all you cared.

We got some time to spend together,
Some memories to last forever,

Yet time ticked on and then one day,
You weren't there, just gone away.

So do you hear me as I speak,
The frailties, my voice quite weak,
I miss you dad, but you're not here,
Yet somehow I know you are near.
