

So many Poem Lyrics

So many years you lived the life,
So many things you've seen,
So many smiles that you created,
No you're gone, so very mean.

So many friends that loved you,
So many to recall,
So many who will honour you,
Thought so special, by us all.

So now your time is over,
So does that mean that all is done,
No, as now we'll honour you,
Our Nan, Our number one.
